SUPPORTING STUDENT WELL-BEING

LOVE LIKE LEXI PROJECT IS COMING TO GREENVILLE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

We are honored to welcome the Love Like Lexi Project to our Church as we prioritize mental health awareness for our community.

PARENT DINNER

Tuesday, May 12th
 5:30-7:30 P.M.
 First Methodist Church
 112 Adams St.
 Greenville, AL 36037
 (334) 382-5872

Founded by Andrea Mills after the tragic loss of her daughter, Lexi Webb, the Love Like Lexi Project delivers powerful assemblies and curriculum across Alabama to foster self-worth, resilience, community, and hope. The program equips students and adults with tools to navigate life's challenges, reduce stigma, and choose to live and lead with purpose.

Special Guest Speakers: Mayor Jae'Ques Brown, Sheriff David Scruggs, and Police Chief Justin Loworn.

Mother's Day Out Year End Celebration

MDO will host its annual Year-End Celebration on Thursday, May 14th from 10:00-12:00. MDO will provide hamburgers and hotdogs and enjoy a fun water day with a giant slide! The Sugar Rush Food Truck will be here with their sno cones! All parents and grandparents are invited to attend! This ministry is such a blessing to families in our community! Please continue to keep this wonderful program, its teachers, and students in your prayers. MDO will resume for the Summer Program on Tuesday, June 2nd.

Thank You!

Mother's Day Out at FMC is a fun place to be! A special thank you to Mr. Dalton & Mrs. Anedra Hood for bringing the race car to MDO! It was a big hit, and the children enjoyed being in the driver's seat!
